

This is a horrible idea. To see how much media coverage is influenced by the corporations that run them, look no further than this very ruling. It has NOT been covered in the mainstream media because the corporations that own them have a vested interest in this passing. So they will not cover this story. This is horrible. Please do not further hinder the dissemination of ideas and opinions. Thank you.